Zen Doggie Dog Training believes in having a loving and meaningful relationship with your canine friend. After all, your dog is a member of your family. Using positive reinforcement training methods can help you communicate and understand how he or she thinks. Zen Doggie Dog Training program includes basic canine etiquette: sit, down, stay, leash manners, take it, leave it, come, wait, etc. We will give you assistance with some the following goals for your canine: prevention of behavior problems, learning to listen, solving behavior problems, and listening around distractions. This is a semi-private, (no more than four dogs per class except the puppy class which is six puppies only) four-week class session.
